Dog Catcher May Be Hired For Carmel

The Carmel Police Department is currently spending one and a half hours a day, or $1300 a year, answering calls pertaining to our canine population. Still problems continue to mount and according to the department, "we cannot do any more without additional help." This is just one reason the Carmel City Council approved a proposed ordinance restricting, somewhat, the travels of our dogs, especially on the beach.

If the ordinance is passed, it will make it unlawful for owners to let dogs run loose unaccompanied on the beach and in the business district. It will also take care of vicious dogs (dogs which have bitten, attacked or threatened to bite people) by requiring them to be leashed even in the residential areas.

At the meeting it was approved to consider hiring a part time employee (dog-catcher) to assist in carrying out the leash laws.

The dogs which will be picked up will be housed in two projected holding cells at the Corporation Yard and it will cost the owner about double the county charges to get the dogs "out of hock." There was no mention of dogs attacking other dogs.

MAYOR'S NEW HAT

Representatives of the Salinas Rodeo appeared before the Council to invite the Mayor and Carmel City officials to attend their "Monterey Peninsula Day" on July 21 in Salinas at the Rodeo Arena. They also presented Mayor Barney Laiolo with a new, 10-gallon hat, just so he might be "properly attired."

TENNIS COURT COLOR CHANGE

City Attorney William Burleigh finally got permission to paint the north end of the tennis court at Forest Hill Park so that he can keep an eye on his tennis balls. After choosing the dark green over a lighter green, the Council approved the paint job at a cost to the City of $52.

EVANS RESIGNATION

The Council last night accepted "with regret" the resignation of Robert Evans Sr. from the Carmel Cultural Commission. "I feel a sense of regret," said Councilman

Herb Blanks, "to hear his decision . . . his qualifications are so great we will have difficulty in finding a replacement." Councilman Frank Falge, a former member of the Cultural Commission, said, "We will be seriously hurt by his resignation."

ADDITIONAL REVENUE

The Council agreed with the recommendations from the Planning Commission to increase the Change of Zoning fee, Variance fee, and Use Permit fee. Plan Check fees were recommended to be charged as provided for in the Uniform Building Code. The Council recommended that a Design Review fee be established at one half cent per square foot of floor space, with a minimum fee of $10. These recommendations will be referred to the Planning Commission for appropriate action.

The Council adopted a resolution establishing a 15-mph speed limit on a portion of Scenic Drive between 8th Avenue and the southerly City limits. They also initiated annexation proceedings of a portion of Scenic.

Accreditation Extended For CHS

The Accrediting Commission of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges has announced that Carmel High School has had its two year accreditation extended to five years.

This extension was granted after a review of the findings of a Revisitation Committee which was on campus several days in April. Congratulations were extended to the District for the quality of work currently being done and the improvement made since the initial evaluation in March of 1967.

Traffic Fatality

An accident at Mission and 13th in Carmel resulted in the death of Gertrude Lafferty who was a passenger in the small foreign car of Adella Morgan.

Sandra Calleen Orcutt of Pacific Grove, driver of the other car, stated she didn't see Mrs. Morgan's car until she was in the intersection. The impact threw the Morgan car into a PG&E pole. Mrs. Morgan was also taken to the Community Hospital.

Carmel Bach Festival Rehearsals In Full Swing

The first downbeat of Sandor Salgo's baton for the 31st Carmel Bach Festival took place Monday night when the first rehearsal of the orchestra was held. Practically none of the musicians had laid eyes on the music before, but so able were they and so accustomed to the Maestro's style were most of them who have worked with him in the past, that the music sounded as though they had rehearsed for weeks.

Boy Dies On Carmel Beach

Last night about 10 p.m. the Red Cross Ambulance was called to Carmel Beach to assist several youngsters in their attempt to bring life back into their friend. By the time the ambulance arrived at the Community Hospital, the 17-year-old Palo Alto boy was dead.

David Hamilton Warnock came to Carmel for "a couple of days" with a friend and joined a party of about 50 "hippie types" on the beach. The group passed around plastic bags filled with hair spray from which they sniffed. Warnock participated. Suddenly he rose, according to witnesses, and ran down the beach 150 yards where he collapsed. By the time his friend reached him, Warnock was hardly breathing. He was taken to the road above the beach and artificial resuscitation was administered. The ambulance arrived shortly thereafter and took Warnock to the hospital.

According to the Carmel police, an autopsy report has not yet been received but "we are convinced that sniffing this hair spray contributed to his death," says Captain William Ellis.

This morning the police checked the beach party remains and found several practically empty hair spray cans.

A witness to the party also noticed that another young boy sniffed hair spray from the plastic bag, jumped up and ran into the bushes screaming and holding his ears.

"It is not illegal," Captain Ellis mentioned, "and this hair spray sniffing is new to us." He went on to say, "Glue sniffing is illegal, now we have this . . . it's pretty sad, frankly."

David Abel and Kenneth Goldsmith rehearsed the Bach Concerto for Two Violins in D Minor with the orchestra and worked out dynamics with the Maestro, with the help of key listeners in the back of the auditorium such as Mrs. Priscilla Salgo and Mr. Ralph Linsley, music coordinator. The concerto will be given at the opening concert next week.

At the cookie break, Mrs. Rhea Diveley, gracious chairman of the hostesses, was on hand as was Michel Mackay, year round business manager for the Festival. Voices buzzed as old friendships were renewed.

Many small recitals at All Saints' Episcopal Parish Hall and other locations, have been planned besides the big evening programs at Sunset. Marilyn Neeley will give a piano recital at All Saints'; Joseph Schuster, a cello recital; David Abel will play the violin with Margaret Fabrizio at the harpsichord.

Kenneth Ahrens will give two organ recitals, one at the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula on Carmel Valley Road and the other at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Monterey.

There will be several other small recitals using baroque instruments and voices.

Superb Acting

Circle Opens Situation Comedy

The Circle Theatre opened last week with "See How They Run," which can best be described as a "fun show."

Situation on top of situation built to the point in the third act when the Vicar played by William Wilson, Jr. ran through the playing area in his red and white striped underwear being chased by: one, the Bishop of Lax, played by Edgar Pye; two, an American Corporal played by Denny Denham in the Vicar's second best suit; three, an escaped Russian Spy played by Dean Funk, dressed in the Vicar's third best suit.

"See How They Run" concerns a former actress married to a Vicar in England who is reunited with one of her fellow actors when he visits her home. He is a corporal in the U. S. Army and is not very well thought of by a busy body of the Parish, played by Ruth McElroy. The corporal and the Vicar's wife decide to go to the next town to see one of the plays in which they starred together, but because it was off limits to him, he changes into the Vicar's clothing. Meanwhile, the Bishop, another Reverend and a Russian Spy come into the home all dressed in the same manner. Mistaken identity takes over causing great confusion.

The acting was considerably better than the play itself. The entire cast was remarkable. No one seemed to push their lines, except on occasion when Ida, the maid played by Betsi Pye, was directed to turn on the steps before her exit and blurt her lines out over the theatre. Miss Pye was excellent in her portrayal of the scatter-brained maid, as was Ruth McElroy, who played the busy body who (inevitably in this type play) got drunk and staggered around stage affording the confusion the playwright seemed to thrive on.

The Vicar Lionel Toop, acted out by William Wilson, was quite good, carrying his part with proper dignity.

Lacking dignity was the Vicar's wife, whose gay-carefree mannerisms were ably constructed by Beverly

Fire and Police Calls

Pelton. The former actor and drafted Corporal Winton was played by Denny Denham who came on a little "under" but picked up after the shock of his entrance to turn in a fine performance.

The Russian spy, played by Dean Funk, too, came on weak, appearing to be Frankenstein instead of a scared, sought after spy. He developed his part when he was confronted by the English sergeant portrayed by Jeffery Jennings.

Edgar Pye's character of Bishop of Lax seemed to suit him perfectly. His calm, easy voice made this character the most believable of the whole evening. He looked and acted the part with excellence.

The Reverend Humphrey, Jim Goffard, entered late in the show and was very good at being confused.

Set designer Barbara Tripp should be commended for the most functional, and attractive set the Circle has seen this year.

Nick Zanides was guest director. Mr. Zanides also directed the High School production, "Enter Laughing."

Theatre Review

DID YOU HEAR THE ONE ABOUT THE TRAVELLING SALESLADY... Scatter-brained travelling saleslady, Phyllis Diller jolts a Missouri town when she enters an automobile race.

THE SHAKIEST GUN IN THE WEST... Dentist Don Knotts goes West in the 1880's and gets involved with smugglers, bandits, Indians and a beautiful girl.

NEVADA SMITH... A gory Western about a cowboy whose family is wiped out. A long search follows.

BENJAMIN... Benjamin, a 17-year-old innocent, comes to live with a titled aunt and is plunged into the amoral life of 18th Century French aristocracy.

GUIDE FOR A MARRIED MAN... Starring Walter Matthau, It's a flash-back type. Guides are shown as the movie progresses.

THE SWEET RIDE... When his girl is found bruised and beaten, a beach boy's efforts to discover who did it and why result in considerable sensational melodrama.

CAMELOT... A splendid film version of the musical based on Arthurian legend which blends fantasy and touching realism. Outstanding performances.

DANANG

By Steven A. Gann

The town and harbor of Danang, S. Vietnam is one of several strategic staging areas for the war in Vietnam.

Carmel High School graduate, Lt. J.G. Mike Cook has recently arrived in Danang. Assigned to Small Boat Repair at the Navy dockyard, he has been working twelve hour days, seven days a week to see that the boats his unit receives are handled quickly, and efficiently as possible. Since his unit works independently it would seem likely that the machinery for handling the various small craft would run smoothly, and that the Navy personnel, and Vietnamese civilians could work without delay and confusion. Unfortunately this is not the case, and it is Lt. Cook's primary function to keep communications between the various repair shops operating smoothly, and to see to it that the boats are returned to duty with as little delay as possible.

Many boats come in for repair, some like the U-Boats, and Mike 8's transport essential supplies up the Perfume River to Hue, and the Cua Viet River to Dong Ha. It is not unusual to have these boats return with shell and small arms holes decorating their super-structures and hulls. And it has happened that some don't return at all as their hulls come to rest permanently in various rivers up north.

Although Mike hasn't had much free time to investigate Danang, he relates that what he has seen really surprised him. "I had seen a few pictures of Danang, but actually going through the streets, the place seems a lot grubbier than I had really expected." Danang possibly isn't so different from many similar Asian towns, but the blight of war is starkly visible.

The streets and roadside shanty-like structures are just dirtier, mostly from the dust spurred up by the constant traffic of heavy military trucks, and endless assortment of other motor vehicles. The open sewage ditches, dried for lack of running water, expel an odor that stings the more sensitive American's nostrils. The beetle nut covered teeth of the Vietnamese peasant startle Americans accustomed to the Pepsodent smile.

The conservationist would weep with despair at viewing the roadside and fields caked with beer and soap cans, or the heaps of garbage rotting, seemingly everywhere, in the heat of the day. And yes, always the heat, now that summer has come, causing the body to sweat and sweat without let-up. Fortunately an afternoon breeze usually comes reviving the brain, and slightly cooling the body.

The actual fighting war is rarely felt here, although possibly to keep the Americans "honest" occasional Russian made 122mm rockets come slamming into Danang. The war doesn't seem so distant then as flares sparkle in the night, and the Air Force "Spooky" gun ships flying protective cover go into action along with artillery and ground troops.

The American War machine can hardly be ignored, however, as the skies over Danang are forever filled with an astonishing assortment of aircraft. The stubby old DC-3 shares the skies and runway with super transports, and sleek fighter-bomber. The helicopters are no less visible, and varied as they skirt buildings and rice fields.

At dusk, one may watch the cloud build high ridges in the sky, as the setting sun casts golden red beams of light on their summits. And the air, sweetened from the heat and moisture of the day clears the mind of muddled thinking. And it becomes possible to view the crowded skies of war, and the splendid beauty of nature's backdrop more lucidly. And for a moment, men like Mike Cook may wonder what this war is all about.

Sailor On Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yost of Del Mesa are just settling down after a very exciting week. Mrs. Yost's son, Tom Pyle arrived in San Diego aboard his ship, the destroyer John A. Bole. The Yosts met him at the dock which was all decorated for this gala event. The John A. Bole is one of six destroyers accompanying the carrier Yorktown. The dock was crowded with families and friends of the crew of this great force.

A band was playing, children were given balloons, the Navy served coffee, lemonade and sweet rolls and many placards were held by the greeters for identification. Typically, the Yost's said their son looked very serious as his landing boat approached the dock until he saw their placard then his face really brightened in a big smile. The crewmen came ashore with all kinds of packages. One young man even carried a vacuum cleaner, a Captain carried a monkey for his seven children.

Tom was able to come home for a couple of days and sleep in a still, comfortable bed and enjoy some home cooking. His shipboard bunk is at the top of three tiers which means that the ceiling pipes are about seven inches from his nose. His haircut still bears evidence of special treatment at the Equator Crossing Ceremony.

Tom is a Quarter Master 3rd Class and his battle position is in the ship's chart room. He is also the ship's photographer and we hope to reproduce some of his work soon in the Pine Cone.

Mary Agnes Lansdowne Entertains

On Tuesday, July 2, Mrs. MacKinnon Lansdowne entertained at a tea and baby shower in honor of Mrs. Michael Cook.

A theme of pink and white was carried out, starting with a pink carnation and white nosegay attached to the door knocker. Little storks, made by the hostess' talented hands added an appropriate note to the individual meringues.

Among the guests were Mrs. Richard Brinton, Mrs. James Scales, Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Howard Hunter, Mrs. Charles Yost, Mrs. Frank Ringland and Mrs. Donald Teague.

Joint Catholic-Episcopal Wedding at the Mission

Janis Lee Gholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Gholson of Pebble Beach, became the bride of Alan Louis Pettite, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Pettite of San Diego, at one o'clock on Saturday, June 29.

The Reverend James Empeur, S.J. and the Reverend David Hill officiated at the joint Roman Catholic-Episcopal wedding at the Carmel Mission Basilica.

Given in marriage by her father, Janis wore a floor length dotted Swiss gown, the scoop neckline and long sleeves edged with a self ruffle. Her headpiece was a Camelot cap holding a floor length English illusion veil. She carried a cloud bouquet of white, yellow and pink roses intermingled with blue forget-me-nots and baby breath.

Her bridal attendants, dressed in pale green with matching headpieces styled in daisy clusters, carried nosegays of white daisies. All three were former roommates at the University of California at Berkeley, from which Janis received her degree in anthropology on June 15.

Peter Pettite acted as his brother's best man, and ushers were Jeffrey Gholson and Kevin Pettite. Christopher Pettite, youngest brother of the groom acted as acolyte during the ceremony.

Following the reception at the Carmel Valley Country Club, the couple left for a honeymoon in Santa Barbara, after which they returned to their home in Alameda where Alan is employed by a yacht brokerage firm. Having completed his tour of duty with the Coast Guard, Alan will return to his studies at the University of San Francisco in the fall.

Janis attended local schools and is a past honored Queen of Job's Daughters. While at Berkeley, she was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta.

Wedding Bells

Shirley Harrah Weds Harold Wenk At Church of the Wayfarer

The Church of the Wayfarer was the setting for the wedding of Shirley Harrah, Saturday at one, to Harold Wenk of Salinas. The Reverend Burkett Cree officiated.

Shirley is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Eugene Harrah of Carmel. She was escorted to the altar by her "Dad" to organ music by Constance Carruth. Robert Almstead, soloist, sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "Wedding Prayer."

Harold is the son of Robert Wenk and Mrs. Yvonne Partridge of Del Rey Oaks.

For her bridal gown, Shirley wore white peau de soie with scooped neckline and ring point sleeves. Pearled Alencon lace sprays outlined the crescent waistline and her lace trimmed chapel length train swept the aisle. A cluster of Alencon lace flowers held a full length veil of silk illusion.

Jean Harrah, who is living in Sacramento, was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an empire princess gown with bateau neckline and short sleeves, in lime green. A fully draped panel fell from the back.

Shirley's attendants were Kathy Farr, Gerry Shepard, Meredith Burde, all of Carmel, and Rose Ingrid Wenk, and Mrs. Robert (Gloria) Mobert, sisters of the groom. Their dresses were similar to Jean's, in lemon yellow.

Headpieces were crowns of baby yellow roses.

Little Pam Mobert, niece of the groom, was flower girl, dressed in lime green. Bobby Thomas, the bride's cousin, was ringbearer.

For his best man, Harold chose Mike Brassfield. His ushers were Robert Mobert, his brother-in-law, Bill Fussner, Robert Oliver, Richard Sanchez, George Norton, and Mike Bobbit.

A reception at the Carmel Woman's Club followed, for which the five tier cake was decorated by Martha Burde.

The mothers of the bride and groom carried out the color scheme. Mrs. Harrah wore a chiffon sheath in lime green and Mrs. Yvonne Partridge wore a ballerina length dress in yellow, with accessories to match.

The bride's 92 year old maternal grandmother from Los Angeles was present, as were many friends and relatives from the Los Angeles and San Jose areas.

The couple honeymooned in Tiburon before driving to Tennessee where Harold is being stationed in Memphis. Harold was graduated from Monterey High in 1965, attended Monterey Peninsula College and is in the U.S. Navy.

Shirley was graduated from Carmel High School in 1965. She attended MPC and San Jose State College.

Chamber Trio A Delight

Fears proved groundless that the acoustics of the old Wells Fargo Bank, now the home of the Carmel Museum of Art would not be quite right for chamber music. It turned out to be the perfect spot and right to present The Chamber Trio composed of Camille Oleata at the piano, Dr. Welton Lee on the violin and Louise Vadetsky on the cello.

Fine instruments, beautifully played, contributed to the enjoyment which found many eyes closed so that nothing might distract from the sounds of the well balanced group. A large Persian rug was the setting for the mellow toned Mason and Hamlin piano — the first piano in the Hawaiian Islands, brought there by Mrs. Philip Schneeberger's mother many years ago. The cello was Italian, at least two hundred years old. The large crowd of young and old, which left a few standing, helped to inspire the artists.

Gilbert Boyer, pianist and teacher, founded the Carmel Chamber Music Society last year.

"It's good to breathe Carmel air again instead of San Jose smog," declared the young Michael Dillons on a recent back-home visit.

Daughter Heather, 2 — usually called Bunny — was busy being spoiled by Margi Dillon's parents, Dick and Sally Martin, and Mike's mother, Mrs. James Deasy.

Mike had hoped to receive his bachelor's degree in math at San Jose State College at the same time Mrs. Deasy (Elizabeth) was awarded her MSW, the relatively new degree of Master's in Social Work, at Fresno State this June. But he still has summer school to go.

He continues as computer programmer in educational research for International Business Machines. Mike reports that his brother Jim, who was called Champ in his Carmel days, and his wife live across the street in San Jose from Mike and Margi.

Elizabeth, back in her Carmel home, also is back at work for the County Welfare Department in Salinas, where she was employed prior to her leave of absence.

Julian P. Graham Studio
Mrs. John H. Hennings, Mr. Richard L. Ghent, Mrs. Betty Marshall, and Mr. Hennings, all of Pebble Beach, were among the large group who enjoyed the champagne preview of resort fashions presented at The Beach and Tennis Club by Roos/Atkins, Pebble Beach.

Popular Author Host On July Fourth

Mr. Nelo Drizari was host at his annual Fourth of July party at his Carmel Cassanova home and studio. A delicious Albanian buffet with savory leg of lamb and other Middle Eastern specialties were enjoyed by Mr. Drizari's friends and neighbors. Albanian by birth but American by adoption, the noted author of many historical biographies including his latest Scanderbeg, always celebrates our Independence Day with much enthusiasm.

From Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Ablanap who have lived in the Hawaiian Islands for many years have decided to make Carmel their permanent home, according to Mrs. Ralph Wilson. They have owned a home here for several years.

Mr. Ablanap, Swiss by birth, is a famous wood carver who has done murals for churches and all sorts of interesting things. He taught for years in the Kamehameha schools in Hawaii.

Musical Gatherings

Marjorie Wurzmann was the guest artist at two recent gatherings at the home of Margaret Aitkenhead and her mother in their new home in South Carmel Hills.

Marjorie played a most interesting piano program which included music by Brahms, Chopin, Scriabin, Poulenc and Ravel, with an encore by Satie.

Following the recitals, guests were served fresh strawberry punch with tiny sandwiches and petits fours, while they admired the view in all directions of Carmel Valley foothills.

Here for Long Weekend

William Gail White, Junior, was in Carmel over the long weekend of the Fourth with his wife, Harriet, and their two children, Sarah and Will. Bill graduated from Carmel High School and is presently living in Carmichael.

New Grandson for Freys

Dr. and Mrs. Austin R. Frey of Pebble Beach received a cable from Istanbul, Turkey last week that a grandson, Nathan, had been born to their son, Dr. Donald A. Frey and his wife. Dr. Frey is a professor of physics at Robert College there.

Mrs. Barry Jones of Pebble Beach is the baby's great-grandmother. The new parents and their son will visit the Peninsula later on this summer.

Masters of Ceremony For Bastille Fete

Mr. Bertrand d'Avenas and Mr. William Cano will alternate as masters of ceremony at the gala Bastille Day celebration at the Pebble Beach Club on Sunday July 14. Sponsored by the Alliance Francaise of the Monterey Peninsula, this year's fete promises to be more popular than ever. For information telephone the ticket and reservation chairman Mrs. Sorin Issvoran at 372-0922 or 372-1282. No one will be admitted without a ticket and none will be sold at the Beach Club. Net proceeds of the celebration will benefit next year's summer scholarship study trip to Paris, the co-presidents of the local Alliance, Mrs. Jerome Carlson and Mrs. James Hathaway, have announced.

Summer in Spain

Alice Powell, teacher at Woods School, and Sally McPhail, who teaches at Middle School, left last week for a summer in Portugal and Spain. They will start their tour on the Algarve, southern coast.

Husband Glenn Powell who is an artist will hold the fort in Carmel. Glenn does landscapes and portraits, in oil. His surrealist fantasies are being shown at the Hidden Village in Monterey.

Ambassador's Room Roma Airport

The Bannisters continue their European travels in Northern Italy, stopping at Florence on the way to Rome: Bonjour, ma famille et mes amis!

At last we're reaching a country where I can understand at least a little of the language! I must confess, however, we are not yet in France, but I have put the "Italian language guide" away, so I must resort to my own peculiar fractured French! We are sitting in the "Ambassador's Room of T.W.A." (Thank goodness Jack had a card for this room.) waiting to take the plane from Rome to NICE. Since Father always gets us to airports at least two hours before flight time, we are able to catch up on correspondence—everyone is writing like mad, while sipping a Bloody Mary.

Italy has been marvelous, but, as usual, never enough time! I'm sure when Otto planned our trip he didn't calculate the length of time it takes to drive a Volkswagen bus, loaded with seven (7) people, and the accompanying myriad number of bags, up-hill! We estimate, with Luke's "calculations" that we average about 25 miles per hour on the "MAIN ROADS". By traveling the Auto-Strada (a freeway) we can average about 45 miles per hour! We have loved driving and feel we have seen so much more of the different countries than if we had travelled otherwise! This has been a wonderful time of year to make such a trip—the wild flowers are prolific and have made the country-side a galaxy of color. Even in the high Alps there were little blue and white crocus-like flowers blooming between the patches of snow. Lupin, buttercups, and scotch broom were prevalent in the Germanic countries, while red "Oriental" poppies seem to be the national wild flower of Italy. The shutters and blinds in Italian houses are always closed during the day, which creates a rather unwelcome atmosphere—in fact we thought all the houses were deserted! It develops this is just a device for keeping the rooms cool, but you feel you are walking into a cave when you enter a room!

I must admit that Italy is not spotless as the Germanic countries are, and Florence is particularly dusty, mainly because of all the repair work going on there as a result of the floods. We were heartsick to see the devastation which occurred in November 1966. The high water mark in many places is at the second-story window sill level. The flood came so fast people were unable to even move things, and many merchants lost their complete stock. The high water lasted for eight hours, and then left a deposit of mud and silt, which took days to remove! In many places electric fans are still blowing hot air from compressors trying to dry out the floors, etc., of many of the churches and museums. They have covered parts of paintings and frescos with gauze to keep the color from coming off while they are drying.

The art treasures in Florence are unbelievable, and happily, for us, we have a marvelous guide for our tour. She was a cute blonde, petite Italian girl by the name of Maria Theresa, and she was an excellent student of the arts. She made the paintings and sculpture come alive for us (even Jack and Bill!), and our view of "David" by Michelangelo was something we will never forget. More about Rome later! The Bannisters.

PROMPT TRASH HAULING

From A Librarian's Notebook

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg, City Librarian

It would almost seem the William Lederer books were the voice of one crying in the wilderness without a soul to hear. The Ugly American must have done little good. Comes now another book which will raise your blood pressure to astronomic heights, namely his new one entitled Our Own Worst Enemy. Once again he names names and writes with utmost frankness, this time about our undeclared war in Vietnam. He says, "One of the reasons we have been so impotent in Vietnam is that we have allowed two additional deadly enemies to enter the war. These two enemies of the United States supply North Vietnam and the Vietcong with war materiel and food. They help maintain high morale. They assist in recruitment. They stimulate the determination to resist and defeat the United States. . . . We are afraid to take action to thwart their deadly actions. We do not have the courage or integrity to confront them. The two countries who are giving this support to North Vietnam and to the Vietcong are not Russia and Red China. They are South Vietnam and the United States. We are our own worst enemy." This is an important book which will sicken you. Move over, Dr. Spock, and let the rest of us come in with you.

This is a bad day for peace and calm, for the second book is about the action of the railroads in so downgrading their service that nobody wants to ride them anymore. This is done deliberately, sometimes in the face of actual profit from the service, because other services might make a larger profit. The book is entitled To Hell In A Day Coach and it was written by Peter Lyon.

To raise our happiness quotient, have a go at The Films of Laurel and Hardy by William Everson. Even a glance at the book jacket will bring a smile and the reading will add many a grin. All of the films of this famous pair are reviewed, all with photographs, all with critical appraisals. Very interesting ! !

Kitty West has done a book for photographers on the subject of retouching. There are many illustrative photographs and it seems to be a helpful book on the subject. The title is Modern Retouching Manual. This should be a good book for an amateur who is developing into a professional.

Another book on Woodrow Wilson covers his life from childhood through 1910, when he was elected Governor of New Jersey. Written by Henry Wilkinson Bragdon, the book is the result of thirty years of research. It is entitled Woodrow Wilson, The Academic Years.

A large and handsome book by Farley Mowat is called The Polar Passion. Based upon journals and authentic accounts of polar exploration, it tells of the men who were driven by polar fever to dare everything in the hope of reaching the North Pole. Robert Bylot, William Baffin, Elisha Kent, Charles Hall, George Tyson, Adolphus Greely, Fridtjof Nan-

for ECOLOGY ACTION
Charles Putnam Herrick
1937 - 1968

Charles Putnam Herrick was a gifted young man who grew up in Carmel, fourth of five generations who lived here. A pioneering skin diver he knew Carmel Bay and San Jose waters, rock by rock. Creative in wood, clay, pencil and paper, as well as words, he was a biology major at Dartmouth. After his return from Vietnam, he studied in the School of Environmental Design at the University of California, a career in urban planning in mind.

Herrick worked with the Steinbeck movie "Flight," filmed in the Big Sur country and back in the mountains. He was set designer for Milhaud's opera "Les Malheurs d'Orfee" last year at the Legion of Honor.

Charles was attuned to the voices of his own generation. He worked for minorities and special issues. To present his ideas on "Human Ecology", where he felt the energies and attention of young people should be led, he started off to a meeting in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He was killed on the way, in a highway accident.

The library is getting a parking lot, one hour parking for patrons ! ! Please take care to move on before your hour is up. The fine you would pay will only go to the city, but the space you should have vacated would go to another patron who needs a place!

Rotary Club Members responded generously with words and gifts in a ceremony for outgoing President Tom Brown. Pictured above is incoming President William Cranston accepting the gavel of authority from Tom Brown. The ceremony was colorful, even topping other meetings of the administration's "Year of the Happening." Additional Rotary officers elected for 1968-69 were: Accountant Thomas C. White, secretary; Retired Banker Arne T. Halle, treasurer; and Directors Richard T. Wilsdon, Richard A. Brinton, Melbourne Campbell and Allman Cook.

The Sun Life Junior Adjustable policy protects you while the children are your dependents . . . and later it protects their families.

At age 21 the assurance protection this policy provides increases to as much as five times the initial level, depending upon the option elected.

Christian Science Sunday Sermon

A communion service will be held this Sunday in Christian Science churches throughout the world.

The Lesson-Sermon is titled "Sacrament" and includes these well-known passages from Matthew:

Masters Concert

The following major works will be featured on the Masters Concert during the week of July 11, over K-WAVE (96.9 m.c.) at 8 p.m.

Thursday, July 11: Berlioz, Symphony Fantastique; Bloch, America - an Epic Rhapsody.

Friday, July 12: Beethoven, Symphony No. 6; Mozart, Violin Concerto No. 3.

Monday, July 15: Mozart, Concerto for Two Pianos; Stravinsky, Symphony in Three Movements.

Tuesday, July 16: Saint Saens, Carnival of the Animals; Tchaikovsky, Piano Concerto No. 1.

Wednesday, July 17: Bach, Orchestral Suite No. 1; Schubert, Piano Sonata in B-Flat.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE RADIO PROGRAM

This Sunday's program in the Christian Science radio series, "The Bible Speaks to You," is titled "Choose Life!" It will be heard on station KGO at 7:30 a.m., KRML at 7:45 a.m. and KDON at 8:45 a.m. To one who thinks he has nothing left to live for this program offers encouraging evidence from the Bible that every individual can find hope in the power of God.

"Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it."

Related passages from the Christian Science textbook include this statement: "It is possible, yea, it is the duty and privilege of every child, man and woman, to follow in some degree the example of the Master by the demonstration of Truth and Life, of health and holiness" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

Following the Lesson-Sermon, the congregation will be invited to kneel in silent communion with God. This will be followed by the repetition of the Lord's Prayer, after which the congregation will sing the Doxology.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Alfred Fairbank, mother of Mrs. Robert E. Newton of Carmel, died a few days ago. Resident of St. Louis, she was on a visit. Active in church work, she was among the 50-year members honored by the Pilgrim Congregational Church there. She is survived by another daughter of Stamford, Connecticut, six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Exhibit "A"

1310. Permitted Use. The following uses only are permitted on each building site in District R-1: One single family dwelling not to exceed two (2) accessory buildings; home occupations; public parks; public schools; horticulture and the rearing or the pasturing of animals or fowl, as otherwise permitted by law; pergolas, fences and walls, no part of which are in excess of eight (8) feet in height and which are not otherwise prohibited by law; such signs as are in conformance with the sign regulations expressed in this article. Also the following conditional uses are permitted, provided that a use permit is granted by the Board of Adjustments pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 herein, namely, churches, private kindergartens, or private nursery schools, and motels, provided said motels were in existence prior to, and on, January 1, 1967.

1341.3 (o). To permit the use of building sites in the R-1 district for motels, as hereinafter defined, and to permit the reconstruction, remodeling or alteration of said motel use.

(1). Standards for Use Permit. The following specific standards, in addition to other standards as may be required elsewhere in Part X of this Code, shall be met before the issuance of any conditional use permit for motel use:

(i) Prior Use. That the use was in existence as a motel prior to, and on, January 1, 1967.

(ii) Residential Character. That all structures conform in design and bulk with the residential character of the surrounding area.

(iii) Taxes Paid. That all taxes due the City have been paid.

(iv) Site Area. That the site area of said motel has been established in the City records, and that the use permit shall state that no expansion or enlargement of site area shall be permitted.

(2). Permit Expiration. In the event any property granted a permit for motel use ceases to be used for a motel for the period of one (1) year, said permit shall terminate and the property shall be used only for single family residence as defined in this Code.

(3). Standards for Amendment of Use Permit. In order to reconstruct, remodel or alter, as hereinafter defined, the applicant must obtain an amendment to the above-mentioned use permit. The following specific standards, in addition to other standards as may be required elsewhere in Part X of this Code, shall be met before said amendment shall become effective.

(i) General Regulations. That the regulations applicable to the commercial district regarding design review, landscaping, signs, retaining walls and floodlighting shall be the minimum applicable to any motel use in the R-1 district, and more restrictive conditions may be imposed in granting said permit. This section shall only apply to alteration or remodeling if said alteration or remodeling affects the above listed activity.

(ii) Site Area. Upon reconstruction each site used for a permitted use shall have not less than 1,500 square feet of site area for each lodging unit. Any units constructed on said motel site after the effective date of this Ordinance shall have 1,500 square feet of site area for each unit.

(iii) Parking. That existing parking spaces shall not be reduced under any circumstances, and that if site coverage is reduced by elimination of any units, additional parking spaces shall be provided until there is one parking stall for each unit of the motel. Upon reconstruction or construction of any new lodging units, there shall be one off-street, on-site parking space for each unit. An additional floor level for parking may be permitted by variance granted by the Board of Adjustments, providing said floor level and parking area is below official grade.

(iv) Residential Character. That all structures conform in design and bulk with the residential character of the surrounding area.

(v) Units. That lodging units per building shall not exceed ten (10).

(vi) Building Coverage. That building coverage shall not exceed thirty-five per cent (35%) of the building site.

(vii) Height and Setback. That the reconstruction, remodeling or alteration of said motels shall be subject to the setback and height restrictions applicable to the R-1 district, as set forth in Sections 1310.7 and 1310.73 of this Code.

(viii) Amendment Expiration. In the event any property is granted an amendment of said permit for reconstruction and said reconstruction is not commenced within one (1) year from the date of issuance of said permit, the amendment to the use permit for said motel use shall terminate.

(4). Conditions. The Board of Adjustments may, in granting a permit for motel use in the R-1 district, or in granting an amendment of said permit for reconstruction, remodeling or alteration of a motel use, impose any condition consistent with the standards set forth in this Section.

1350.68 Reconstruction. Replacement or rebuilding in any one twelve (12) month period of a structure, the value of which exceeds fifty per cent (50%) of the structure prior to reconstruction or rebuilding.

1350.681 Remodeling or Alteration. The change in the design, floor plan or appearance of a structure, the value of which, in any twelve (12) month period, exceeds $4,000.00.

1350.58 Motel. A motel is any building or group of buildings on one site and under one ownership or one management containing four or more guest rooms intended or designed to be used or which are used, rented or hired out to be occupied, or which are occupied for sleeping purposes by guests.

NOW WE HAVE THE ANSWERS! For those of you who have wanted to invest in a large old home on 2 lots south of Ocean Avenue, we now have TWO properties to offer. Both have at least 4 bedrooms and 2 baths, both can be rented (or used for fun vacations) while the land appreciates. The lots alone are worth nearly the price of $38,500 in each case. Look to the future—here's your chance!

ONE OF OUR ALL-TIME FAVORITES is an impeccable home in Carmel Knolls which you should be sure to see if you want a 3-bedroom, 2-bath home. The floor plan is interesting (the house was custom-built for the owners who now must leave the area), and the views of the Valley and Lower Bay are real dividends. Spotless electric kitchen, big family-dining room and step-down living room. $49,500 for this and it's really shipshape inside and out.

IF YOU WOULD RATHER BUILD to suit your needs, why not call to see our close-in lot with lovely trees? Nearly ½ acre, choice neighborhood, easy to build on and only $18,500.

As American As Apple Pie!

The Carmel Valley corn is ripening. The dahlias are blooming. The Rhode Island reds each lay their egg a day. The firewood is neatly corded. Stand at the front door and survey your sunny acre and reflect that here is New England farm life in miniature—just enough of everything to give you something to do, room for a horse and a cow if you want, and elbow room—yet you're just two miles away from Carmel-by-the-Sea and out into the Valley sunshine. And consider your Early American home: barn red trimmed in white, real spinning wheel charm in the architecture combined with the latest all-American conveniences. Spacious living room and dining room, sunny breakfast room, a marvel of a kitchen. Two bedrooms on the main floor, and another with bath off the upstairs balcony. Full, finished basement, ideal for a loom or hobbies requiring space, with a Franklin fireplace. Shopping center and schools nearby. Carpeted, draped and shuttered—everything in mint condition—you could move right in without even dusting! And the corn, chickens and firewood go with the place at just $55,000.

MARKET COMMENTARY

Dow Theory Business & Stock Market Forecasts letter for July 3 mentions "With inflation built into our economy and into our way of life, clients should not only make the buying and holding of common stocks the cornerstone of their investment program, but should emphasize selectivity more than ever. Proper stock selection cannot offset the ravages of general market declines but it can help minimize the loss. And certainly the risk of holding stocks over the long term in this type of economy is not nearly as great as the danger inherent in a dollar that is constantly and steadily eroding in value." Their Weekly Consensus of Other Leading Stock Market Advisers: "44% say BUY; 28% say SELL; 28% say HOLD."
